

Highlights of Existing Services

Infrastructure

- Community league snow removal grant and promotion of the seniors home supports program
- City of Edmonton Access Design Guide
- Language is included in design contracts about accessibility, the Barrier Free Design Guide and the City of Edmonton Access Design Guide

Highlights of Existing Services

Infrastructure

- An accessibility checklist has been developed based on the Barrier-Free Design Guide published by the Safety Codes Council and the CoE Access Design Guide. It is being used to support Facility Accessibility Audits.
- Complete Streets Standards are applied to transportation projects and includes curb ramp standards and accessibility considerations.
- Downtown Streetscape Manual

Highlights of Existing Services

Infrastructure

- Community Facility Partner Grant Program: The grant requires the City of Edmonton Access Design Guide to be applied to projects in conjunction with the Barrier-Free Design Guide for the planning, designing, building and maintaining of infrastructure owned, occupied, or funded by the City of Edmonton (IIS).
- Universal Design reviews are provided by the Urban Design team

Highlights of Existing Services

Infrastructure

Traditional playgrounds don't work for all children. At the new Jumpstart Inclusive Playground, the only obstacle will be having as much fun as possible. Located in Clareview District Park, the playground accommodates physical, cognitive and sensory disabilities in a space where all children can play side-by-side.